4. The Chairman requested any agency that wished to have a stock of covers to be prepared by CIA along the lines of the illustration attached to the referenced memorandum should report its needs to [redacted] It was understood that the use of this cover was optional on the part of the participating agencies.

Submission of Priority Targets

(Reference: [redacted] 18 October 1957)

5. It was agreed that the form presented would be used for the submission of all additional targets except highest and high and that they need not be considered by the Committee. [redacted] will issue from time to time a machine listing of newly added low priority targets.

6. The question of deletion of low priority targets which had been covered from the lists was raised. This subject will be considered further at the next meeting, although the Chairman suggested that for practical purposes Operations should use as guidance for low priority targets which had been covered coverage plots of missions accomplished.
